DEPARTING FROM OAK TERMINAL 1

Oakland International Airport Terminal 1 is home to gates 1 to 18. Proceed upstairs for the security checkpoint and then go to your gate. You can use the security checkpoint for either terminal to access your Terminal 1 gate. Shops and restaurants are available post-security.

Gate 18 is located directly beside the check-in area. Gate 1 is further into the terminal, and the other gates are all clustered in the same concourse, with Gates 3 and 4 closest to the check-in area and gates 14A and 17 furthest away at about a five-minute walk from the entrance to the concourse. If you need to access Terminal 2, you'll find a connector near Gate 4 that will leave you near Gate 20 of Terminal 2.

Try to arrive two hours in advance of your Oakland International Airport Terminal 1 domestic flight, or three hours in advance of an international flight.

ARRIVING AT OAK TERMINAL 1

When you arrive at Oakland International Airport Terminal 1 on an international flight, you will need to go through customs. This can be done through an automated kiosk if you're a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, visa holder, or Canadian citizen. Others will need to answer questions at a customs officer's desk and fill out a form. Domestic travelers will not have to go through customs. Proceed to the baggage claim area on the lower level and check the screens to see which carousel your bags will be deposited at.
