

Sacramento Airport SMF | Terminal A

OVERVIEW

Sacramento International Airport is the gateway to California's capital city as well as the larger region, including destinations like Yosemite and Lake Tahoe. It has two terminals. Terminal A serves four airlines and has 13 gates, while Terminal B has 19 gates serving nine airlines. This guide is for Terminal A.

Travelers will find many dining, shopping, and relaxation options at Sacramento International Airport's Terminal A.

Tb: Sacramento has long been a leader among airports. It was the first in the country to offer free Wifi airport-wide.

WHERE CAN I EAT & DRINK AT SMF TERMINAL A?

Most of Sacramento Airport's Terminal A dining options are found in its central food and shopping court, and most of them reflect Sacramento's burgeoning foodie scene. Squeeze Burger is beloved in Sacramento. Another local favorite, Taylor's Market, is represented by the Taylors Selections grab-and-go market. Iron Horse Tavern's airport outpost pairs lowkey, urbane dining options with a range of drinks. Visit Freshii's for healthy salads, smoothies, juices, soups, and wraps. Paesanos is the place for pizzas and other Italian fare. The popular Vino Volo wine bar also has a selection of delicious small plates. Try out Bay Area favorite Peet's Coffee & Tea airside or Starbucks pre-security for caffeine options. La Taqueria, the only other non-food-court option, is near Gate A15. It serves up Mexican classics like tacos and burritos.

TRY THIS! Make like Guy Fieri and order a Squeeze with Cheese at Squeeze Burger. This local fave comes with a huge slice of cheese known as a "skirt" that drapes around its lower half.

WHAT CAN I BUY AT SMF TERMINAL A?

Shopping is centered in the central court of Sacramento Airport Terminal A. For athleisure favorites, water bottles, and yoga accouterments, @ease will tick all the boxes. If you're looking for the perfect travel purse or wallet, visit Baggallini, which has a devoted following for its lightweight, attractive offerings. For gorgeous fashion jewelry, try Erwin Pearl. If you need electronics, try InMotion Entertainment. For the perfect quick impulse buy or a gift, check out the novelty socks and other accessories at PopSox.
